

Accountability

Module 2: Part 1

ACCOUNTABILITY *WORKS.

Accountability

- Common definition: an obligation or willingness to accept responsibility or to account for one's actions
- Our definition: observation without judgment
  - Observation influences the outcome

The Accountable Universe

- Everything that we do or do not do is stored as information
- Every action you do or do not take sets off a chain of events
- What are different forms of accountability?

Model of the Unconscious Mind

Whether we are aware or not we are creating our esteem

Model of the Unconscious Mind

When incompletions stack up we create a context of low self-esteem.

Model of the Unconscious Mind

Low self-esteem manifests as “I can’t”, “Not enough”, and ultimately “I’m not good enough”.

Accountability Neutralizes

The negatives are neutralized when you acknowledge them.

Accountability & Abundance

Commitment + Accountability

- Goals come from the mind
- Commitments come from the soul
  - Embedded in every commitment is a consequence. (Newton's 3rd Law)
  - Commitment creates a forward thinking mindset
- Accountability pulls the soul through the density of the ego.

Commitment + Accountability

- Did you do what you said what you said you were going to do?
  - If yes, you are done with the commitment.
  - If no, then you allowed something to get in your way. FEAR. Here is an opportunity for learning, you can take that information and use it to identify your barrier. You can choose to confront fear.
  - A good way to keep yourself expanding is to keep yourself accountable, by staying accountable your barriers are revealed

FEAR is the dividing line between your current reality and your potential.

Accountability & FEAR

The Purpose of Accountability

- Accountability reveals FEAR
- We then have a choice as to how we want to proceed.
- If we choose to confront our FEAR we will expand, if we choose not to confront our FEAR we will stay in our current reality.
- When you are in that place of not knowing you are in a state of personal revelation.
- The purpose of accountability is revelation
